PROFILE

I'm a dedicated Python learner with a strong interest in data analysis, currently building my skills through self-study and hands-on projects. I have actively practiced Python alongside FastAPI for building and testing RESTful APIs, and utilized PL/SQL for database management tasks. and procedural scripting. Experienced in utilizing OSINT and digital forensics tools including theHarvester, Autopsy, ExifTool, and FTK Imager. Recently, I developed a small Machine Learning project predicting air quality (AQI) from environmental pollutant data using Linear Regression.
